Men, Woman Seek Seats On Canyon School Board

Seven candidates including two incumbents will be on the ballot Saturday when voters here go to the polls to fill two seats on the Canyon School Board.

The polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. at the Canyon

Community Center and at Gene Howe School in the election, which sees six men and a woman vying for the two open seats. Absentee voting ended Tuesday.

Two incumbents seeking re-election are Richard Pruett and Harold Erwin.

Pruett is a local restaurant owner, who has served one year on the school board.

Erwin, a farmer and rancher in the north part of the county, has served several terms on the board.

The two are challenged by Mrs. Pauline Hefley, David Kent, Dr. Wallace Johnston, Dr. Hiram Carr and Dr. J. L. Markham.

Mrs. Hefley, who has run twice before for the school board, is a local insurance woman. She is active in the Business and Professional Women's organization and has served on the board of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce.

Kent is a relative newcomer to Canyon. He is tennis coach at West Texas State University and has taught in Amarillo schools. Dr. Johnston is head of the Industrial Education Department at WTSU.

Dr. Carr, a local dentist, has worked closely with Amarillo College in preparing a dental assistant curriculum for AC's vocational school.

Dr. Markham is a local veterinarian.

The candidates appeared last week in two Candidate Night sessions and gave similar views on such issues as the dress code at the schools, spending priorities and athletics (see March 29 News).

Two other elections are also scheduled for Saturday at the (See BOARD, page 10)

One of the first to cast his ballot Tuesday in the city commission election was this gentleman who came in just after 8 a.m. A comparatively heavy turnout of voters seated Dr.

J. Pat Stephens who was seeking election against incumbent Felix Pierce. Dr. Willis Harrison was also returned to office unopposed.

Sheriff Cliff Longest hangs a portrait of the late Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston in a room in the sheriff's office dedicated Monday to the memory of the late sheriff. Mrs. Johnston, left, was present at the dedication ceremonies.

Sewage Regulation Talked To Deter Water Pollution

County-wide regulation of bore-hole drilling for waste disposal was discussed Monday by Randall County commissioners.

Commissioners concerned over recent complaints that the profusion of bore holes in the county might cause underground water pollution, took no action following their discussion with James Wilson, district supervisor for the Texas Water Quality Board.

County Judge Woody Pond said following the meeting that Wilson had received several complaints from county residents about the digging of bore holes in mobile home parks for sewage disposal purposes. Wilson asked to appear before commissioners to outline their powers in regulation of bore-hole digging.

Prefacing his comments with the advice that the water quality board is not authorized jurisdiction in control of bore-hole digging, Wilson said his job is to investigate any complaint of water pollution within the district.

Wilson said bore-hole drilling has resulted in underground water pollution in the Rolling Hills area of north Amarillo. He also cited pollution problems in the Pleasant Valley area of Amarillo resulting from widespread use of bore-holes to dispose of sewage by homeowners.

Wilson would not say whether the ever-increasing use of bore holes in the Randall County area is causing pollution of underground water supplies.

But, he warned commissioners they should attempt to control (See SEWAGE, page 4)

Delegates Due Here For Affair

Canyon will lay out the welcome mat Friday and Saturday for an expected turnout of between three and four hundred clubwomen attending the Top of Texas District Convention in the Activities Center at West Texas State University.

Activities begin Friday morning with special pre-convention luncheons and culminate Saturday with a banquet at 6:30 p.m. in the East Cafeteria with State Senator Max Sherman as speaker.

Mrs. Don Max Vars of Canyon, District president, will preside at most of the official meetings and the two banquets. She is the second local resident to serve as head of the Top of Texas District and this is the first of their thirteen annual conventions held here. Mrs. R.T. Landsey of Canyon is a past district president.

Boycott Of Meat? What Meat Boycott?

What meat boycott?

Although they've read about it, heard about it and seen commentary about it on the national media, local grocery store managers say the purported national meat boycott just hasn't had any effect in Canyon.

Here in the heart of cattle country, the consumer, although he's cut down on his meat purchases during recent months at some local stores, has apparently paid the national boycotters no heed.

Officials at Canyon's three grocery stores said about the only thing they've heard from customers has been joking about the meat boycott.

"I believe the people in this area have been raised on beef and are closely associated enough either themselves or through someone they know who raises cattle or has some interest in the cattle industry that although they feel prices are a little high, they know what it's going for at the market, too," said one grocer.

He said he feels local consumers are more knowledgeable of and more adapted to beef.

"I personally have never even tasted lamb," he said, indicating what he believes is a strong beef orientation here.

He said news of the boycott has been just that. In fact, his beef (See BOYCOTT, page 10)

Speaker Urges Youthful Goals

An Oklahoma family counselor blamed the news media for painting a blacker-than-reality picture of today's young people and then told a gathering of West Texas State University students to rise above mediocrity by recognizing their individuality and the impact they can have on society.

Relating media accounts of protests over the Vietnam war, Charles E. Whaley, director of family counseling at a Lawton,

Oklahoma, diagnostic clinic, said the press "has pointed the finger of guilt at you."

Speaker for the 27th annual Willson Lectures on the WTSU campus, Whaley defended today's youth.

"We need a generation of great young people who will not concern themselves with acquisition," he said. "If anybody is going to bring about change, it will have to be your generation."

Today's youth, Whaley said, is capable of moving the country up from mediocrity. But, to do so, today's youth must move away from conformity.

"The imitation cannot go above its model," Whaley said. "It's easy to be a conformist, but to be nobody but yourself in a world which is trying to get you to be like everybody else will be the most difficult battle you'll have to fight."

While today's young people have opinions, the lecturer said, they must also be willing to have convictions.

"Total conformity to the majority is impossible when you're filled with convictions," he said. "If you want to lead, if you want to have convictions, then turn your back on the crowd."

To rise from mediocrity, today's youth must also have a basic faith in themselves as in-

WT Animal Clinic Might Face Delay

Establishment of a large animal diagnostic clinic on the West Texas State University campus could be delayed until another legislative session can consider funding for construction, Canyon Chamber of Commerce directors were told Monday night.

Dr. Charles Smallwood, dean of the WTSU school of agriculture and a Chamber director, said the clinic has apparently not been included in an appropriations bill by the Legislature.

He said he expects little opposition to a bill initiated by Rep. Bryan Poff which would call for establishment of the clinic on the Canyon campus under supervision of the Texas A&M board of regents.

"The problem is that the appropriations bills were out so fast and one is already printed,"

Smallwood said. "They were out before this could be worked in an appropriations bill."

Smallwood said there is still chance the House membership would vote to fund the clinic on the legislative floor.

But, he said the Poff measure might be passed during this session without funding to be financed at a later date.

In other business Monday, Director David West was appointed by Chamber President Raymond Raillard to investigate the possibilities of establishing a solicitations review board for the City of Canyon.

West initiated discussion on establishment of such a board, which would have as its purpose the review of all solicitation programs carried out in the city.

City And County Services Contract Battle Looms In Local Skirmishes

Renewal of a county-city battle over who'll pay how much for what service loomed as a possibility Monday night after city commissioners learned county commissioners are hesitant to buy them a new fire truck.

City Manager George Loudder was instructed by commissioners to prepare a report of all services provided by the city for the county and by the county for the city with cost estimates included.

City action came after county commissioners last week said they would rather increase supplementary payments to the city for rural fire service than purchase a $35,000 fire truck.

Loudder told city commissioners of the county's proposal to up supplementary payments.

Mayor Manly Bryan said he feels in light of the county's proposal the city needs to re-examine the current contract it maintains with the county. Currently, the city provides fire protection and dump ground accessibility in exchange for county-owned communications and jail facilities.

The mayor said he wants to know what it costs the city to provide fire service for the county as well as what it costs the city to provide the county with other services.

I love the wives of most men, but at the same time, I have great sympathy for the husbands who have to live with them.

A battle over the current contract cropped up three years ago when city commissioners asked the county to participate in running the city-owned dump ground north of Canyon.

The battle was never resolved. "We'll have to look at every cost and put in every cost," the mayor said.

Loudder basically reiterated statements he has made before that a new fire truck is needed primarily to fight rural area fires, and that there would be no need for a new fire truck were the city not providing fire service to the (See BATTLE, page 10)

Farmers are beginning to learn the bitter truth of what I've been telling them for years.

They do not have a political home.

For decades farmers have been sold a bill of goods that the Democratic Party is the farmer's friend. Their faith began to wane when the party began consistently siding with big labor in its efforts to organize farmhands across the country.

Few farmers can forget the Democratic pledge in its 1972 convention to boycott lettuce in support of organizer Caesar Chavez in his efforts to organize grape pickers in California and stoop labor in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

Now for the first time in years the farmer seems about to receive a fair price for his products. Political road blocks are being thrown up by both parties.

Leading the pack to head the farmer off at the pass has been Labor Czar George Meany, an unmitigated hypocrite if there ever was one. Meany with a straight face continues to ask for more while insisting on less for farmers already struggling to pay exorbitant prices for farm machinery inflated through excessive demands by George Meany.

Through it all the farmer has had one voice speaking loud and clear in his behalf—that of the Republican Secretary of Agriculture, Earl Butte.

Excluding the President, George Meany is the most powerful man in the United States . . . and this might not even exclude Nixon himself.

Meany's power is bought with money exacted from members of his union. It is high time for stringent controls on how much and for what purposes he may spend money garnered from the membership.

Old Leo Wyoming is sure cutting a wide swath and he's about the most unpredictable guy I've ever heard tell of.

Leo showed up in print a few weeks ago as head of an ad hoc committee promoting Dr. T. Paige Carruth for president of West Texas State University.

I got a telegram the latter part of last week from Leo in Great Britain from whence Wyoming in a huff threatened suit if we did not desist linking his name with that of Amarillo financier Stanley Marsh, III.

Tuesday I received a call from an Amarillo banker who in guarded tones informed me that Wyoming had opened a substantial account in his bank for the ad hoc committee and had reportedly done likewise at a Canyon bank.

Then surprise of surprises, a peace offering.

Late Tuesday Canyon News

Managing Editor Carroll Wilson received a $40 bouquet from . . . Leo Wyoming.

The card congratulated Wilson and pledged Leo's undying devotion to the cause.

America's detente with Russia is a mixed blessing.

That and our improving relations with China let us off the hook in Vietnam but for the third time we are bailing out a Russia tottering on the ropes.

We fed the infant USSR during the 1922-23 famine at a cost to the United States, which did not then recognize the soviet government, of some $20 million. It is unlikely that the communists regime could have survived without this help.

During World War II the United States again came to the aid of a beleaguered Soviet Union with $11 billion in lend lease for which we received not a penny in return.

We furnished the landing craft with which the Red Army invaded Korea setting the stage for the Korean war which cost us so dearly.

During the 1930s American engineers built what little industrial potential Russia had including the huge Dnieper Hydro-electric power station. Ford Company sent its River Rouge plant along with many skilled workers in 1930.

Andrei Amalrik, a Moscow historian, is in Siberian exile for his underground book which he wrote three years ago predicting an American-Russian alliance. The book, "Will the Soviet Union Survive Until 1984?" said Russia can already rely more on the U.S. than on such communist satellite countries as Rumania or Czechoslovakia.

Amalrik was sentenced to Siberian imprisonment for "anti-Soviet slander."

None-the-less, his predictions are coming true.

One thing we had better remember, Russia will call an end to the honeymoon as soon as it fits her purpose to do so.

Expenses Light

For Candidates

The candidates in the Tuesday city commission election were apparently frugal during the early part of the campaign.

Statements of expense and income filed by Felix Pierce, J. Pat Stephens and Dr. Willis Harrison indicate only minor expenditures for one candidate during the early period.

Expense and income statements for the entire campaign period are to be filed later.

Stephens' expense statement notes a $10 gift from his wife, Jane, and a $4.25 expenditure for Xeroxing.

Pierce and Harrison indicate no income and no expense in the early campaign days.

Umbarger Drive

Aids Cancer Fund

This year's Umbarger Cancer Drive is being headed there by Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wieck.

The drive began in Umbarger this week and will continue through the weekend and into next week.

If any Umbarger residents are not contacted to contribute to the American Cancer Society they are asked to call Wieck, according to campaign supervisor Benny Cooper.

Energy Crisis Real

Says Petroleum Expert

A petroleum industry spokesman said Tuesday the energy crisis facing this country is for real and "we will be finding out more about it in coming weeks."

Earl Grabhorn of Dallas, educational director of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association, said he expected the gas crisis to last until 1985.

"We're not talking about rationing gas in terms of World War II," he told a conservation class at West Texas State University.

He said what probably will happen is that some service stations will close and "you will wait in line at other stations and maybe get only 10 gallons" at a time.

Grabhorn said in his opinion the energy crisis was brought about by three reasons. He said they were "skyrocketing demand for fuel oil and gasoline" . . . "unrealistic governmental policies" . . . "environmental harassment."

He said, "We're not really running out of oil. It is just a matter of looking for it."

A prime source of oil is off the continental shelf, he said. Only one per cent of the off-shore land is leased and drilled on and this accounts for 17 per cent of the crude and 16 per cent of the gas recovered in this country, he added.

"Texas is not a very prolific producer off-shore," Grabhorn said.

Special Olympics Set For Next Week

Next Tuesday beginning at 8 a.m., the area Special Olympics will be held at the West Texas State University fieldhouse.

The all-day competition will include elementary and junior high school students from the entire Panhandle area.

Competition will include the basic track events such as dashes, broad jumps and some swimming events.

The meet is under direction of Richard Ortiz of WTSU's physical education department.

About 42 students from the Canyon School District will take part in the meet, said Mrs. Hazel Strickland, head of the special services department in Canyon schools.

The Jaycees of Canyon are cooperating with the Canyon entries by taking on the responsibility of getting the local students to the meet. Jerry Landrum is chairman of the Jaycee committee which has furnished money and time to the program.

Winners in the various events will be awarded Olympic style medals and each will advance to the state meet scheduled for later in the year. National competition is also held, with contestants made up of state winners.

According to Ortiz, some 160 students are expected to compete.

Talks Brochure

Members of the Canyon Board of City Development, recently funded for a year by the City Commission, met during a work session Monday night to discuss proposals for printing a new brochure touting Canyon's assets.

As planned, the brochure will include full-color pictures of Palo Duro Canyon, West Texas State University, Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, the musical drama "TEXAS," Canyon itself, and Buffalo Lake.

Along with pictures will be brief explanations of each attraction.

Members also briefly discussed printing of place mats and the publication of a tabloid-type promotion for summer tourist use.

"Like Old Times"

At Buffalo Lake

Oma Hayes of 1510 Ong in Amarillo, one of the thousands who visited Buffalo Lake over the weekend, caught only one fish for her efforts. She didn't seem to mind too much because her specimen measured 29 inches long and weighed 10 1/2 pounds.

The big cat, one of 64 lunkers planted in the lake last fall to go along with the 103,000 smaller fish, was nabbed on liver bait from the east bank near the dam.

The dedicated fisherman, mother of Canyon News' Happy correspondent Mary Neal Henry, made the catch with an open-face reel loaded with six-pound test line.

According to wildlife refuge officials, it was estimated that more than 6,000 people visited the just reopened waters over the weekend, with some 2,000 wetting a line.

The largest number of visitors was on Sunday, said refuge manager Paul Ferguson.

Ferguson said the fishermen and fisherwomen bagged an estimated average of three fish each, for an approximate total of 6,000 fish taken.

Stringers included several bull-head cat but there were no scaled

Deposits Up In City Banks

At West Texas State Bank, deposits rose about $2 million from $4,569,581 in April 1972 to $6,497,200 this week.

Deposits at the First National Bank took a dip from a high of $24,303,000 as of Dec. 31, 1972.

"We were down, but we always are," executive vice president David West said.

West said he is pleased with the stable and increasing deposit rates in the Canyon banks. He said he anticipates another good quarter during the next three months.

Sixth Graders Sell Cupcakes For Gift Fund

By TROYCE MULHERIN
GREETINGS:
IN ORDER TO raise funds to be used in the purchase of a gift for the school, all sixth graders have been engaged in the cupcake business. Each sixth grader has been contributing about two dozen cupcakes for resale at the easy-to-swallow price of five cents each! These students envision a gift of a mat, bearing the words "Gene Howe Falcons," to be placed at the Pico Street entrance of the school. Said foot-wiper is guaranteed to reach up and grab the dirt off the shoes. A reasonable and sensible gift, eh? Save your pennies and nickles and trot over to the cafetorium and treat yourself. These cupcakes will be on sale to all, specially the school children, during the lunch periods. Eat up.

Not only that, his outfit was not just any old cowgirl outfit. In reality, it belongs to Sidney, who used to wear the real fancy gear in parades. Lots of fun for all this funny, funny day.

The clubs in Canyon are the Woman's Book Club, Sue Hite Club, University Study Club, Canyon Study Club, Heritage Woman's Club, and Les Amies, a new juniorette club. Pioneer Club and Summerfield Club are the clubs from the Hereford area.

Business sessions slated for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and afternoon will be concerned mainly with receiving recommendations, resolutions, and committee and club reports. A district trustee and district scholarship representative will also be elected.

Judging and presentation of awards will take up much of the convention time. Awards will be presented to three outstanding clubwomen in the district from among many nominated by the clubs.

Membership awards will be given to the club with best increase in membership, the club with best average attendance, and a club which has organized a new club.

Winners in an Arts and Crafts Exhibit, a home sewing competition, and a poet laureate competition will also be judged and announced.

Other highlights of the convention will be a Friday night banquet at 6:30 p.m. at which Mrs. Kermit Lawson of Pampa, district secretary, and Dr. Charles Townsend, WTSU history professor, will speak. Music will be provided by the Canyon High School Show Choir.

A Saturday luncheon at 11:45 honoring junior and juniorette clubs is scheduled in the East Cafeteria. Fashions for Fun, with members modeling their home-sewn garments, will be presented and the New Day Singers from WTSU will sing.

At the final banquet on Saturday evening at 6:30 in the East Cafeteria, State Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo will address the group. Membership and Outstanding Clubwoman awards will be presented, and a TWFC music scholarship, recipient, Emily Hallmark of San Angelo, will sing.

the use of bore holes before pollution of the ground water occurs and it is too late to do anything about it.

Commissioner John Fulgenzi questioned the advisability of the county attempting to control or regulate bore-hole usage, particularly based on the lack of expertise among the commissioners on pollution and general geology.

"We don't have the expertise to make the decision," Fulgenzi said. "I'm just wondering if the expertise is available to us. If it isn't I'd say we'd have to back off."

Wilson noted that the water quality board would act in an advisory capacity for the county and would review complaints.

The district supervisor indicated the majority of boreholes in Randall County are within mobile home parks which have been established mainly between Canyon and Amarillo.

dividuals, and must value their individual worth.

Pointing out how humanity differs from the animal population of the world, Whaley stressed the individuality of each person and the inherent and God-given worth of each individual.

"If we are to move from mediocrity, it will demand an awareness of purposeful existence on your part," Whaley said.

This awareness embodies a recognition that God had a plan and purpose for each individual's existence on earth, the lecturer said.

To achieve a rise from mediocrity, today's youth must also learn to understand themselves and accept themselves for what they are.

"No one is more important to you than you," he said. "It is imperative today that we understand others, but preceding that we must understand ourselves."

It isn't enough just to know yourself, he said, but you must also accept your limitations, your strengths and weaknesses.

Once you understand yourself and accept yourself, Whaley said, you must be yourself.

"There's not any place for role playing in dynamic living," he said. "You can be a sham just so long. You can't allow yourself to be an imitation."

In closing, Whaley admonished his listeners that they can become anything they want to become.

Whaley was also scheduled to speak Tuesday and Wednesday. A final presentation will be at 11 a.m. today in the Activities Center ballroom.

More Acres Use Minimum Tillage

More than 2,000 acres of Randall County cropland are expected to be put less to the plow this year, according to John O'Connor, head of the local soil conservation office.

Many farmers in the county, O'Connor says, are turning to a relatively new farming technique called minimum tillage, a system which limits cultural operations to only those essential for crop production.

With minimum tillage, crops are planted directly into a mulch left undisturbed from the previous crop. Competition is controlled with approved herbicides.

"This system leaves a year-long cover on the soil surface," O'Connor said. "Cover from the dead stalks and leaves is one of the best known methods of reducing wind and water erosion."

Other major advantages of using minimum tillage are moisture conservation, better seedling survival and increased wildlife food and cover.

O'Connor said local soil conservation service personnel, working through the Palo Duro Soil and Water Conservation District, can help land users plan minimum tillage farming systems.

The SCS also has copies of a booklet explaining the system in detail.

The Cancer Drive conducted Tuesday received a helping hand from Chi Omega sorority. Preparing to collect are WTSU activists Pam Hurst of Lubbock, Charlotte Phillips, of Tulsa, and Lynda Nelson of Tulsa. Okla. Mrs. Joyce Wooten, right, president of Chi Omega Alumnae in Canyon, handed out materials.

According to Garrett, two all-around winners will be awarded championship buckles, one each for men and women.

Admission to each of the three performances will be $2 for general admission and $3 for reserved seats. Kenny Wright is president of the WT Rodeo Club.

CHS Wins Honors With One-Act Play

The speech and drama department of Canyon High School took first place, and won several individual honors at the district University Interscholastic League's one-act play competition held at Clarendon Junior College Tuesday.

Other members of the Canyon cast were John Boone and Lauran Fulton.

Speech and drama instructor Charles Wright described the competition as extremely keen. "We spent a tense afternoon waiting to learn the results," he said of the judging.

Wright said the students had worked hard to win the honor. "And we are real proud of them."

The winning play will be presented to the public Saturday night at 7:30 p.m. at the high school auditorium. In addition to "The Bald Soprano," a one-act mystery under direction of Carroll Killingsworth, school counselor, will also be presented.

Palisades Palaver

By MILDRED TURNER
THE PALISADES AREA 4-Hers hosted a Finger Foods Tea for Becky Hall, Julia Wheeler and their mothers. The girls planned the tea, each preparing a dish. Cathy Webb made the meatballs with sauce; Molly Dudenhauffer, the finger tip sandwiches; Sherry Seitz, green onion dip; Debbie Dettin, avocado dip. They served celery and carrot sticks instead of salad. Janna Penny made brownies, Lisa Williams made chocolate chip cookies, Christy Fleming made a big chocolate cake (for Cathy Webb's birthday), Susan McDonald made a Peachy-fizz punch. Christy's little sister, Heather was a guest also. Mrs. Seitz could not attend, but the mothers who were present declared that was the "best food" and "graciously" served.

FOUR OF OUR Palisades area girls brought home ribbons Saturday from the Food Show in Canyon. Molly Dudenhauffer won first prize on her no-bake cookies entered in the snack division. Debbie Dettin placed second with her brownies. Two third place winners were Janna Penny with her peanut butter cookies and Christy Fleming with her chocolate cake. We are so proud of these girls.

I HEARD BY way of the grapevine how these 4-H girls are really getting in a lot of practice on their families in the way of Pizza, hamburgers and all sorts of snacks. Keep up the good work girls.

I HAD SOME sewing machine trouble this week so I ran up to have a look at Edith Steven's (ours are the same make). We always get carried away looking at her latest paintings, rocks, etc., but I finally came home, got my machine fixed and got to sewing Sheree's Easter dress. I have three more to go. I talked to Judy Dettin and she has her children's Easter outfits all made and is going to make her dress and her husband's pants.

HEARD IN A round about way, that Billye and D.L. Brackeen were in Oklahoma City over the weekend.

TO GIVE AWAY: Baby kittens with or without mother, pretty, furry, various colors, two eyes, four legs and one tail, each equipped with good vocal cords. 622-4781.

THE JACK MOSSES and their Joe, and the J.R. Hornes attended the motorcycle races at Killeen, Texas (Ft. Hood, near Temple) last weekend returning late Monday. Jess Penton received a gold medal but will have to compete five more times to be in the finals this fall. (Some place on the east coast, I think). We believe he will make it because he has represented the U.S. in two European races and he is very good.

HOMEWARD BOUND. THE Hornes visited J.R.'s sister and her husband out on Belton Lake. Many of you know R.T. and Ara Lee Normand. Jackie said the humming birds and blue bonnets were everywhere.

LENA AND LUM Edwards just returned from a ten day spree. Lena had a good visit with her sister, Ruby Bell, in NTSU Composer Commissioned For WT Work

Dr. William P. Latham of North Texas State University has been commissioned to compose a work for the Symphonic Band of West Texas State University.

The "display piece" will be premiered at the annual Texas Music Educators Conference in Houston in early 1974.

Dr. Latham, director of graduate studies in music in the NTSU School of Music, is a well-known composer whose works have been performed throughout the United States and Europe. He teaches composition in the NTSU School of Music and often conducts concerts of his compositions at NTSU and throughout the U.S.

The West Texas State University Symphonic Band is directed by Dr. Gary Garner.

"I honestly don't know anyone else who combines so well the qualities of inspiration with craftsmanship, along with an ability to write with sensitivity and understanding for winds," said Dr. Garner of Dr. Latham's being chosen for the commission.

Absentee Voting Attracts Few

Absentee balloting for the Canyon School Board, County School Board and hospital board elections ended Tuesday afternoon.

Thirty-two persons voted absentee in the Canyon school election, while 10 voted absentee in the South Randall County Hospital District board election, and two voted absentee in the County School Board election.

Girls In 4-H Host Finger Food Tea For Mrs. Hall

Oklahoma City (I have known Ruby for years). At Ft. Gibson the waters were near flooding, requiring them to open fourteen gates. After visiting friends at Pea Ridge, Arkansas, they went over to Beaver Dam to fish but the weather was cold and rainy so they goofed around a couple of days. They later drove over to West Plains, Mo. where they visited the Tom Lovins. (She's Joe's sister). Note their names are almost alike. Bobby and Joe Lovan Jr. (used to live out here) have bought a place there in Missouri. Although they saw water everywhere and it was cool, Lena and Lum enjoyed the change and relaxation brought by visiting old friends and old fishing places.

JACKIE HORNE ASKED how I was doing on my weight losing. I told her I was kinda pointed at the top. I am a pile of bones (from the shoulders up). I've lost seven ugly pounds (from the shoulders up)—just feel, if you don't believe it (from the shoulders up). My neck is long, my face longer, my eyes, nose, and ears protrude but my figure is slowly improving (from my shoulders up).

I HAD THE opportunity to go with Dora Waldrop for Bill's graduation last Thursday evening down at the community center where he took his obedience course. It was so very interesting. There were several special awards. A huge St. Bernard and his master sat on my left. I turned and asked "How old is your horse?" "I had meant to say 'dog,' but 'horse' just came out because I was thinking horse. I was a little embarrassed but he only laughed. There were dogs of every description—small, large, beautiful, ugly—but they all did well on their graduation exercises and some were perfect. Bill is the "Heinz 57 variety," no special breed, glossy black, short hair, very tall, slender, with a certain dignity in his personality. Anyway, if you should meet Bill, show him respect because he does have his graduation certificate!

YOU WHO DID not attend the District I meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Clubs at Boy's Ranch, sure missed a fun day. After the morning business and a cute skit on Safety by 4-H leaders, we had a very informative history of Boy's Ranch. While in line for the luncheon some were greeting old friends, chatting (you know how women are!) and some were keeping time (in varied ways) to the band music by the boys at the ranch. The barbecued beef lunch with all the trimmings was delicious and several small boys were handy with extra coffee or tea. Next there was the bus tour. While some were on the tour, the others were at the art and crafts exhibit displayed by each county's clubs, or the museum next door. Lena and I always go bananas at something like this. With gardening season on us we may try the Crocheted hat made from squares with colorful crocheted crown and edged with same color yarn. The squares were many goodies too numerous to name, but there was a lot of rare talent on display there.

THE BUS TOUR included a round of the ranch, viewing the cattle, hogs, butchering, food processing plant, the place where the milk, juice, honey and syrup are all cartoned. The barracks where the boys live were as "home like" as possible. Each boy can have a dog if he desires. There was a gym, swimming and all sorts of athletic areas. They operate their own bank where each boy is taught to manage his own checking account and money.

THEY HAD EXPECTED around 350 to 400 guests but last I heard there were 484. Our Palisades club had eight ladies attend. Although the day was cold and drizzly and some of the smiles looked kinda frozen on their faces it did not dampen their gleeful spirits as the ladies waited in line for the tour. In all, it was a unique and delightful day.

SEE YOU NEXT week. M.T. 622-0701

CHS Thinclads Prep For District Meet

Rain, wind and snow again hampered Canyon High School athletics and the only activity last weekend was the track team's effort in the Amarillo Relays which were moved to West Texas State University because of the weather.

In the meet, which offered competition from many AAAA schools, Canyon finished well down the list but still ahead of such teams as Caprock, Muleshoe, Perryton and Rider of Wichita Falls.

Bob Counseller made the best showing for the Eagles by taking fourth place in the discus. His throw was good for 142 feet.

Coach Ron Mills also cited Raby Rathiff, Dwight Harper and Steve Williams for their efforts. The Eagles copped several seventh place finishes. The Canyon thinclads will take part in the District I-AAA Meet to be held at the WTSU track on Saturday. According to Mills, the competition for district honors will be extremely tough this year.

Track activity planned by the girl's track squad was washed out over the weekend, and the weather also caused cancellation of a planned double header between the CHS Eagles and Clovis, N.M.

The girl Eagles will go to Panhandle April 14 for their District I-AAA track meet.

The next home baseball game scheduled will pit the Eagles against Clovis at 3 p.m. at Conner Park.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT

relating to the establishment of the Randall County Juvenile Board and the juvenile probation department; maintaining in office those persons serving as juvenile officers on the effective date of this Act; and declaring an emergency.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. The Juvenile Board of Randall County is created, and is composed of the judges of the district courts having jurisdiction in Randall County and the county judge.

Section 2. The Juvenile Board shall create the Juvenile Court and shall appoint the Judge of the Juvenile Court, who shall serve as the chairman of the Juvenile Board and shall be its chief administrative officer.

The chief probation officer shall appoint a sufficient number of assistants and other employees to carry on the professional, clerical, and other work of the juvenile court, subject to the approval of the Juvenile Board.

Section 4. The Juvenile Board is authorized, with the advice and consent of the commissioners court, to employ and designate the titles and fix the salaries of probation officers and such administrative, supervisory, stenographic, clerical, and other personnel as may be necessary.

Section 5. The Juvenile Board shall have direction and control over all juvenile officers and may make rules and regulations to implement that direction and control.

Section 7. Probation officers shall be furnished transportation, or alternatively, shall be entitled to an automobile allowance for use of personal automobile on official business, under the same terms and conditions as is provided for sheriffs.

Section 8. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the status of a person serving as juvenile officer or assistant juvenile officer on the effective date of this Act or to require a new appointment of the officers during their current terms of office.

Section 9. For the added duties hereby imposed on the members of the board, the commissioners court of the county may allow the members of the board compensation from the county general fund. This compensation shall be in addition to any other salary received by the members of the board.

Box said the on-campus interviews are expected to take place between the end of the Easter holidays and the close of school in mid-May.

Other business to be considered Friday by the Regents is signing of a contract for new basketball coach Ron Ekker and two assistants.

Ekker, who reported to the campus last week, has already hired Mike Mitchell as one assistant and is expected to have another assistant named by the Friday meeting.

Ekker's contract calls for a $17,000 annual salary.

Friday's meeting will be at the Austin Club in the Commodore Perry Building in Austin beginning at 10 a.m.

He noted that the board would have the authority to regulate fund drives and door-to-door sales campaigns within the city.

Childs said door prizes of $15 and $25 will be given away.

The breakfast will also feature spontaneous announcements concerning local tourist attractions.

The breakfast, to be sponsored by West Texas State Bank, is free to chamber members and their guests.

"The dump ground should be considered, too," said Commissioner H. R. Fulton referring to Louder's study of costs.

"It's a problem that needs to be solved," Mayor Bryan said.

Louder said he has acquired an amount of information concerning who uses the dump ground for use in his report.

"We'd be happy to turn over the dump ground to the county and let them do it," Bryan said.

In other business, commissioners approved another proposed budget grant application from the Potter Randall Metro Intelligence Unit to the Texas Criminal Justice Commission for about $80,000.

Commissioners also voted to increase certain hospitalization benefits for city employees, primarily a raise in room rate benefits from $18 per day to $30 per day.

Commissioners, cognizant of the passage earlier Tuesday of the change in the city charter, decided to reopen negotiations with Pioneer Natural Gas Co. on a franchise agreement for a 10-year period.

Happy News Methodist Lay Witness Mission Is Slated This Weekend

By MARY NEAL HENRY
MOTHER, OMA HAYES, caught the first big fish on Sunday morning at Buffalo Lake. She has been so excited about it, that we just had to tease her quite a bit. I first understood it was 28 inches long, then her tape measure read 29 inches long and she said if she'd stretched his whiskers out in front of him, he'd have measured 32 inches. He really was a big channel cat. Game Wardens at the lake weighed him—10½ pounds. Someone said that she drug the hide off of him dragging him out of the water to show him. Canyon News has a picture and story in this week's paper. We got to have part of him for supper on Monday night. Filet of Catfish—it was delicious.

CLOIS AND A. J. Greenfield and Camilla and C.J. Greenfield and their Cari, Karen and Andy arrived at Buffalo Lake early the morning of its opening and cooked hamburgers out for dinner. They were later joined by the Wiley James family of Canyon, the Jerry Dustman family of Amarillo, and Camilla's brother, the Frank Davis family of Canyon.

MR. AND MRS. Bud Smith were also fishing at Buffalo Lake on its opening day. Others taking in the big opening were Jackie Pyle, Randy Bell, Mike Sims, the Bob Hargraves and the Charlie Morrisons. I'm sure others were there. Wished you'd called me and told me about it!

PEARL BOONE AND Oma Hayes both spent the weekend with us. It was too muddy to travel and too muddy to work outside, so we really enjoyed the visit.

PAM SHIPMAN DID make four points at the All Star Game in about that same number of minutes. She also made two more later in the game. That made a total of six points for Pam. She played well. Pam and Karen Murdock beat Clarendon and Floydada to progress to the quarter-finals in tennis in the Amarillo Relays last weekend. Then they lost the next games to Nazareth.

MARCELLA SHAW INJURED her ankle in the Volleyball Tournament at Tulsa last weekend. Two games were in progress at the same time and a man playing on the other court hit Marcella in an attempt to go after a wild ball. The man was knocked unconscious for a short time and Marcella received a chipped bone and pulled ligaments in an ankle. She is wearing a cast.

BROTHER PAUL HEIL spent Saturday night in the Tulsa hospital with a kidney stone. Sunday, the fever was gone and no more complications showed up on the tests run, so Phoebe brought him home. He was in the Sunday evening service. That is the fastest answered prayer that I can ever vouch for.

DOCTOR ROBINSON IS steadily improving. He has had a very small number of visitors. He needs lots more rest instead of company. Let's give him every chance to recuperate.

MELVIN SCHAEFFER IS still in Room 329 at St. Anthony's Hospital. They are still running tests as of Monday. His temperature is finally normal, at least temporarily.

LUTHER AIKENS WAS scheduled for surgery this week—removal of a part of a lung. Remember Ruth and Luther, too, with your prayers.

JIMMY BRIGGS, HOSPITALIZED in Tulsa with a heart attack is reported very much improved this week.

MRS. McDOWELL HAS been in St. Anthony's Hospital in Room 2051.

PETE PARTLOW AND Myra Applewhite showed films and slides of their Old Mexico Mission trip Sunday evening at the Baptist Church. These trips were into Mexican villages that had no churches or small mission churches.

"TIME TO RUN," a Billy Graham film will be showing in Canyon from April 11 to 14. The church bus will run on Friday, April 13. This film comes highly recommended.

THE METHODIST CHURCH Lay Witness Mission is this weekend. The visitors will begin arriving about 4:30 on Friday. A team meeting including coordinators, pastors, team members and leaders will be held at 6:00, a covered dish supper from 7:00 until 8:00 and the first general session will begin at 8 p.m. At 8:45, small group meetings will be held. Saturday morning team meetings will begin at 8 a.m. and coffee and coke groups at 9:30. Another team meeting will be held at 5:30 p.m., covered dish meal at 7:00 and general session at 8:00. Sunday morning at 8:00 will be another team session, and then Sunday School at 9:45 with team members leading the Sunday School classes. Worship service will begin at 10:45. At 12:30, there will be a farewell lunch for the visiting witnesses. An evaluation and projection by local chairmen will follow at 7 p.m. on Sunday evening. Everyone is invited. These people expect a miracle.

Principal Alvin Moudy received the banner for the school. President Mark Hargrave did the presentation on behalf of the senior class.

THE RUTH SUNDAY School Class of the Baptist Church met on Thursday morning of last week at the church for a business meeting. LaNelle Todd gave the devotional. The group then traveled to Canyon and had lunch at the Yum Yum Tree. Attending this social were Nora Taylor, Gui Faye Via, Billy Pearson, LaNelle Todd, Traverne Vermeire, June Hancock, Camilla Greenfield, Joyce Patching, and a visitor, Joy Davis of Canyon.

ROY THOMPSON'S AUNT, Mrs. Edgar Britain of Stinnett, passed away on Thursday evening of last week. Mrs. Britain was 64 years old. Judy and Tuffy were in Stinnett from Friday until Sunday.

ERVIN WILSON HAS announced that his barber shop will open on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday only. (I like the way Mark said it better, but few can be that humorous in print).

KAREN MURDOCK IS the 21st annual Lions Club Queen. She will represent Happy in Hereford later this month. Congratulations, Karen!

SANDY RAILSBACK IS first runner-up and Metta Moudy second runner-up in the Lions Queen Contest.

WENDY SIMS WON sixth in Chute Dogging in the Dalhart Tri-State Rodeo. Ken Henry, Sherry Starkey, Debra Magness, and Kevin Donnell also entered the show. Others from Happy may have made that one. The weather was wet and cold.

THE SWISHER COUNTY Home Tour was postponed because of the weather. (So was my piano tuning). Guess there will be another day.

THE TRACK TEAM spent last Friday in Sundown. J.T. spent the night with Jay Horace McCarley when they returned.

THE UIL LITERARY Contest at Amherst was Tuesday of this week. Those winners will have to be published next week.

DR. CABELLERO OF West Texas State will present the program for the Happy Artists' Club this Friday evening.

THIS HAS BEEN F.H.A. Week. These Future Homemakers put a red rose in each church on Sunday. They had various other activities for each day this week.

LINDA McDONALD HOSTED the Women's Study Club in the Methodist Church Parlor on Tuesday. Ora Mary Sims was her co-hostess. Jessie Francy presented the book review of "Another Spring" by Loula Erdman.

CLOIS GREENFIELD'S BROTHER and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Knight of Bovina spent part of the weekend with Clois and A.J. Greenfield.

HAPPY JAYCEES TREATED their wives to a night out on Saturday evening. About thirty couples and a few more Jaycees (single) enjoyed steaks at the Paradise too.

STEVE COLE, JR., won a buckle at the Clarendon Rodeo last weekend. He won first in the Ribbon Roping. Wendy Sims mugged the calf for Steve while he grabbed the ribbon for the judge.

LENA WALBERG AND Lou Parker gave Mrs. Oscar Smith of Canyon a surprise birthday coffee last Thursday afternoon at 4. Lena went to visit Mr. and Mrs. Smith and didn't say a word because she thought the rain would keep most of the invited guests away. But eleven of the little ladies braved the weather and came to help Mrs. Smith celebrate. A decorated birthday cake, coffee and spiced tea were served to Mrs. Arthur Olsen, Mrs. Harley Burris, Mrs. Baile McCormick, Mrs. Clem Dugan, Mrs. R.B. Gist, Jr., Mrs. "Doc" Reynolds, Mrs. Ed Reynolds, Mrs. L.S. Johnston, Mrs. Delbert Davis, Mrs. Boots McFroom, Mrs. Patriel Parker of Happy and Mrs. Johnny Parker and Mrs. Babe Walberg. R.B. HAPPY JAYCEES ARE also asking the people of Happy to get out and vote in the coming school election. If you voted in the 1972 elections, that same voter registration is valid now. You are a qualified voter. Please VOTE.

BY PUBLIC REQUEST here is a short resume on each of the seven candidates running for the Happy School Board. Each candidate was asked age, occupation, number of years in Happy, education, and two questions: "Why do you wish to serve on the Happy School Board?" and "What improvements or changes would you like to see in the Happy School System?" The following information is printed by permission.

LONNIE TODD, 42, is a farmer and stockman, and has lived in Happy all his life. He graduated from Happy High and served in the Army. Lonnie has two children in school, a sophomore and a first grader.

ROBERT LEE, 44, is involved in lumber and grain. He has lived in Happy 22 years. Robert graduated from Shamrock High School and West Texas State. He has one son in Happy school, a senior (and one in W.T.).

BURL SIMS, 46, a farmer and rancher, was raised in this community. He graduated from Happy High in 1944 and W.T. in 1951 after serving in the Army. Burl says he wishes to serve to be of service to his community and the children of the area and he has no changes or improvements in mind. Burl has three children in school, a senior, a sophomore, and a 6th grader, and a married daughter and a pre-schooler.

WALTER VIA, 49, is involved in livestock and farming. He moved to Happy in 1936 and has children attending the Happy schools for 26 years. Walter graduated from Morton in 1944 and served in the Army during World War II. Walter says interested persons petitioned him to serve on the school board and if elected he will serve gladly. He feels that the taxpayers should know more about the activities of the school system and that the sports program should be upgraded as in former years. Walter promises the people more voice in the school and promises to bring any controversy before the board. Walter has two children in Happy schools, a senior and an 8th grader. Walter has three married children.

WAYNE PEARSON, 42, is engaged in farming and livestock. He has been raised in this community and graduated from Happy High and attended Tech. Wayne was petitioned to run by interested voters and will serve if the people so desire. Wayne would like to see our scholastic standing improved because recent pupils are having problems at college that former students did not have. Wayne also feels that communications should improve and an understanding needs to be developed. Wayne has two children in school, a senior and an eighth grader, and two boys in college.

LARRY TACKITT, 43, owner and operator of Bilt Rite Farms, has lived in Happy 17 years. He graduated from Panhandle High School and Tech and received his masters degree there. Because Larry is attending a short course at Texas A&M this week he was unavailable to answer why he wished to serve and what improvements he'd like to see in our schools. My apologies to Larry and to you. Larry does have three children in school, a senior, a sophomore, and a fourth grader.

MRS. LAVENNA JACKSON, 36, a homemaker and tax accountant, has lived in Happy for 12 years. She graduated Orleans, Neb., and Lippert's Business College in Plainview. LaVenna wishes to serve because she is interested in the young people of this community and desires they have a good education. LaVenna would like to see more communication between the school and the public. She has three children in school, a senior, a sophomore, a third grader, and one child in W.T.

HAPPY HAS THEIR own air show! Mary and Eddie Womack watched Tom Moudy do rolls, etc. against the cloudy sky. It was quite a pretty sight.

LEATHER AND LACE of WTSU will hold a Team Roping Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. at Panhandle. Entry fee is $30 per team. There will be a $15 jackpot barrel racing.

SUNNY HILL HOME Demonstration Club will meet at Bertie Culp's home today to elect officers and elect their "Woman of the Year."

COWBELLES NEXT MEETING will be April 11, a luncheon at Faye Parker's. See ya there! And remember, eat more American Beef!

See ya! Mary Neal

Lolmaugh Trial Date Uncertain

Trial for Marvin E. Lolmaugh, 30, charged with the shooting death of his father-in-law, could be today in 181st District Court here.

Due to a heavy civil court docket, it was not known at press time whether the murder trial would proceed this week or be delayed possibly until early May.

Lolmaugh is charged with the November death of Leonard Eugene Mullin.

"James Cornette has made outstanding contributions in planning and executing mathematics instruction for students from freshmen to doctoral candidates. His concern for getting students off to a good start is shown in his repeated requests to teach beginning courses, where his sections are regularly oversubscribed by students."

"His knowledge and skill in teaching and curriculum planning are widely recognized."

The award carried a $500 stipend.

Cornette's trip to the Southeast Asian country is associated with the Malaysian-American Commission on Educational Exchange program.

He will serve as a lecturer and consultant at the university from May 15 until Jan. 15, 1974.

The business and residential drives for the American Cancer Society campaign in Canyon continue this week.

Main night for seeking residential contributions was Tuesday night.

Campaign workers in the business drive mapped their program early Tuesday and will continue contacting local businessmen for contributions through the week.

Goal for this year's Cancer drive is $5,000, according to Campaign Chairman Henry Cooper. Heading up the residential drive is Mrs. Carolyn Hunt. Carroll Wilson and Mary Alice Hines head the business drive.

Campaign workers in the business drive included County Judge Woody Pond, Kay Henderson, Della Henry, John O'Connor, Walter Shelly, Rhett Plank, Dr. Bernard Fitzner, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crossland, Mrs. Pauline Hefley, Ray Grimes, Louis Camp, Wayne Simms, Lt. Col. John Childs, Cordell Huddleston, Don Tardy, and Reggie Reeves.

Upon completion of the exams, the nurses will enroll as seniors in the fall to graduate in May 1974 with the first class of basic baccalaureate nursing students.

Mrs. Eunice King, head of the department of nursing, said the exams are a part of WTSU's commitment to meet the needs of registered nurses in the area.

The exams are to be administered to 150 registered nurses in Lubbock in June.

Two dozen snows and weeks of rainy days have delayed construction on the new Library and Science buildings on the West Texas State University campus by about three weeks.

Virgil Henson, financial vice president for WTSU, said he is pleased with the contractors for the buildings and believes they may be able to make up the three weeks during the summer.

Target date for completion of the library is August. The new science building is to be completed by November.

The delay, Henson said, "is not fatal to this point."

Top junior and senior winners in the Randall County 4-H Food Show held Saturday are Cynthia Dugan, junior of Cleta 4-H Club; Kellye Covington, junior of Randall 4-H Club; Janet Wilhelm, senior of Umbarger 4-H Club; and Linda Hartman, senior of Umbarger 4-H Club.

Easter Seal Appeal Here Continues

A further request for support for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its program of services to the handicapped was issued this week by David West of Canyon, program representative for the county.

West said the Society provided treatment and services for 16,500 physically handicapped children and adults in Texas last year.

The Society continues to carry out a program to seek out the disabled who are without services. As Easter Seal representative, West is the person to contact for services from the Society.

The Easter Seal Appeal continues here through Easter Sunday, April 22.

Five Workshops Slated In Music

Five music workshops are slated this summer on the West Texas State University campus.

They include workshops on piano, music education, choral conducting, concert band and marching band.

The piano workshop will be June 5-9 and is offered for one semester credit hour of college credit for participants. The workshop is designed for piano teachers, graduate students and under-graduate students with advanced standing.

It will include an in-depth study of the Beethoven Sonatas for piano with special attention to technical preparation and interpretation of the works.

Kenneth Drake, professor of Piano at Drake University, internationally known for his demonstrations and performances, will be clinician.

The music education workshop will be taught by Elsa Porter, assistant professor of voice at West Texas State University. The workshop is designed for elementary classroom and special music teachers, music consultants and supervisors, graduate students and undergraduates with advanced standing.

The workshop will include reading music suitable for elementary and intermediate chorus, demonstration of reading-readiness activities using recorders, and the performance of children's operas and cantatas.

Dr. Lee Kjelson of the University of Miami, Fla., will be guest clinician for the choral conductor's workshop, which is scheduled June 25-29.

The workshop, held in conjunction with the West Texas Choral Music Camp, is designed for public school and college choral directors, church choir directors, graduate students and undergraduate students with advanced standing.

The workshop will include in-depth studies of choral tone and color, balance and blend factors and aspects of intonation with various choral groups.

The concert band workshop is scheduled July 16-26 with Dr. Gary Garner, director of bands at WTSU, as clinician.

The workshop is designed for high school and junior high school band directors, graduate students and undergraduate students with advanced standing. It will include emphasis on problems relating to the development of superior concert bands.

A West Texas State University chemistry professor and three of his students have recently published papers in scientific journals.

Dr. Gene O. Carlisle said that besides himself the research papers were prepared by Gregory D. Simpson, 24, graduate student from Amarillo; Maxey D. McKnight, 20, junior from Kress; and Donald A. Crutchfield, formerly of Amarillo and now doing research in soil chemistry at Texas A&M University.

Simpson's work was published in Inorganica Chimica Acta and McKnight's in the Journal of the Chemical Society, both international scientific publications. Carlisle's paper was published in Inorganica Chimica Acta.

Carlisle plans to attend the 165th national meeting of the American Chemical Society in Dallas April 8-13.

Dr. W. J. Julian, director of bands at the University of Tennessee, will be clinician for the marching band workshop slated July 21-22 for band directors, graduate students, and undergraduates with advanced standing.

The workshop will include emphasis on the sound of the marching band, outdoor sonority, instrument placement and projection, effective scoring, show continuity and structure.

Information on attendance at the workshops may be obtained by writing Dr. George Umberson, chairman of the Department of Music at WTSU.

Census Survey To Eye Buying

A sample of households in the Canyon area is among the about 15,000 in the U.S. included in the consumer buying and residential alterations and repairs survey conducted the first two weeks of April by the Bureau of the Census.

The survey is taken quarterly as part of a nationwide effort to guide governmental agencies in developing programs based on consumer spending patterns. Information is gathered on intentions to buy a house, car and major household appliance during the next 12 months.

Questions about home repairs and alterations relate only to those made during the past three months.

The January survey indicated the consumer plans to buy new cars were higher in October, but there was no significant statistical change in plans to buy major household appliances or to make home improvements.

Information supplied in the survey is confidential by law.

Golfers Close But Not Enough

West Texas State University's golfers are wondering this week just what they must do to win a tournament. They carded a 36-hole team total of one-under par 283-284 — 557, but fell to Hardin-Simmons University by one stroke Saturday at the Eastern New Mexico University Invitational in Portales, N.M.

The Buffs' Dick Weston shot 69 and 66, seven-under par, to win medalist honors in the tournament.

Other West Texas State scorers were Jerry Boeka, 71-70 — 141; Randall Burton, 73-75 — 148; Eddie Kilmer, 70-78 — 148; Junior Salinas, 76-73 — 149; and John Hood, 73-79 — 152. The low four scores each day counted on the team totals.

Coach Vern Farquhar's Buffs'loes compete Friday and Saturday in the Oklahoma Baptist University Invitational Tournament at Shawnee, Okla. There will be 36 holes played Friday and 18 Saturday for a 54-hole total.

Buff's Spring Drills Marred By Rain

Bad weather, most of it rain, caused West Texas State University's first week of spring football practice to hit a snag.

The Buffaloes of coach Gene Mayfield were able to practice only three days during the opening week and rain halted Monday's workout during the second scheduled week.

"Saturday's workout looked like the first day of practice instead of the third day," said head coach Gene Mayfield. "Overall I would have to say that we didn't get much accomplished during the first week of drills."

Mayfield and his staff gave the Buffaloes Tuesday off and they were expected to return to the practice field Wednesday, if they got a break from the weather man.

The Buffalo coaching staff spent considerable time last week looking at offensive combinations of both the Wishbone-T and I formations.

"We may show people a great deal of passing offense this spring, but that is mainly to add strength to that phase of our offense," said Mayfield. "We led the Missouri Valley Conference in rushing offense last fall, but we were last in passing offense. We just want to add some balance to the offense."

At the key quarterback position, the coaching staff is looking at six players—one junior college transfer, one red-shirt transfer, two varsity lettermen and two freshman lettermen.

Don Nava, a 6-1, 185-pounder from River City, Calif., is the junior college transfer. Bobby Nowak sat out last year after transferring from Oklahoma State.

Mike Wartes, who started for the Buffaloes last fall, and Bob Sweat, another letterman, are in the thick of the fight for the starting quarterback berth, as are freshman lettermen Mike Adams and Chuck Wright.

The Buffalo coaching staff is also looking at a five-man defensive front wall instead of the four-man front.

"Because of the opponents we faced last fall we lined up in a five-man front much of the time and we are thinking of going to that alignment most of the time this coming fall," said Mayfield.

If the Buffaloes have been able to get in some work this week they will probably have their first scrimmage of the spring Saturday afternoon.

Rene Clemente, left, and Stephen Hilton are the puppeteers in the musical stage production of Carnival which began an eight-day run at West Texas State University Wednesday night. The show continues in the Fine Arts Theatre through Saturday night and then resumes Tuesday through April 13.

Track Star Carl Brown Out

West Texas State's track team, minus hurdle star Carl Brown, competes Saturday in the Wichita State Invitational.

Brown, the Missouri Valley Conference record-holder in the 120-yard high hurdles, pulled a hamstring muscle Saturday in a dual with Eastern New Mexico University and will be out of action for some time—perhaps for the season.

Other teams entered in Saturday's meet are Wichita State, Colorado State, Air Force Academy, University of Missouri, University of Kansas and University of Arkansas.

The Buffaloes were edged in Saturday's dual, 75-70, by Eastern New Mexico, but some of their times and distances were impressive.

Dennis Briggs, who won three first places, set a new school record in the discus with 183-10 to break the mark set last year by Kirk Johnson of 174-5. Briggs also won the shot put and javelin events.

Silverton freshman Marvin Self also exceeded the school discus record with a 181-7 effort.

Sprinter Tracy Dickson, running with a cross-wind, tied the school 220-yard dash mark with a 21.3 time. He also had a 9.6 time in the 100-yard dash.

Other Buffalo first places Saturday were Gary Six, high jump; Rick Beeman, 120-yard high hurdles; and Jim Childers, triple jump.

WTSU Netters Host Seven

Coach David Kent and his West Texas State University tennis team have got their work cut out for them this week when they host seven teams for a team tournament.

Among the stronger teams in the tourney are Oklahoma City University, University of Oklahoma, University of Colorado and University of Arkansas. Other teams are New Mexico State University, Southeastern Oklahoma State and Amarillo College.

OCU has defeated nationally ranked University of Houston this season and reached the finals of the strong Corpus Christi University team tourney. Oklahoma is the defending Big Eight Conference champion. Colorado was second to Oklahoma in the Big Eight race last year. Arkansas holds wins this season over Memphis State and Alabama.

Kent has scheduled the Tuba Recital At WT Thurs.

Robert Quintanilla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Quintanilla of Bay City, will be featured in a tuba recital at 4 p.m. Thursday in the West Texas State University Fine Arts Building.

Quintanilla, a student of Donald Baird of the WTSU music faculty, is a member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national music fraternity.

His program will include Corelli-Morris' "Sonata Da Chiesa for Two Tubas," Hartley's "Sonata for Tuba and Piano," Ewald's "Symphony for Brass Choir" and Haddad's "Suite for Tuba."

Assisting Quintanilla in his performance are pianist Mike Raillard, Canyon freshman; trumpeter Evelyn Hadley, Canyon senior; trombonist Sandy McQueen, Memphis senior; trumpeter Van Sharp, Panhandle sophomore; and hornist Karen Schoenberger, Hurst senior.

The recital is presented in partial fulfillment of graduation requirements for a Bachelor of Music Education Degree.

Recital Fri. For Senior

Janette Bruza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bruza of 3806 S. Polk of Amarillo, will be featured in a violin recital Friday at West Texas State University.

Miss Bruza, a former member of the Amarillo Symphony, will perform at 4 p.m. in the Fine Arts Auditorium. The performance is free.

She is a member of Alpha Chi, national honor society, Mary E. Hudspeth Honor Society and Mu Phi Epsilon, music sorority of which she is past president.

She is listed in the 1973 edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Her program will include Shostakovich's "Sonata, Op. 40" and Couperin's "pieces en Concert."

Assisting Miss Bruza will be Lorna Schultz, Canyon graduate student.

WT Junior Dies In Fall

A junior student at West Texas State University fell to his death Sunday morning after his parachute failed to open during a sky-diving jump at the old Amarillo Air Base in Amarillo.

Daniel O'Gorman, a Shamrock native who was active in ROTC here, was parachuting with other members of the Amarillo Skydivers Club when the death occurred.

Witnesses said his chute failed to open and he landed on the runway at the base.

tournament at sites in both Amarillo and Canyon to give more people an opportunity to see major college tennis competition.

The Buffaloes host New Mexico State at 1 p.m. Thursday at the West Texas State Courts. Arkansas faces Amarillo College at the same time on the Memorial Park Courts in Amarillo. Two matches are slated for 1 p.m. Thursday at the Amarillo Tennis Center. Oklahoma and Colorado play at that time in a tourney match, which will also be counted as a Big Eight Conference event, and Oklahoma City meets Southeastern Oklahoma.

Winners of the Oklahoma-Colorado and Amarillo College-Arkansas matches meet at 9:30 a.m. Friday in Canyon. Winners of the other two matches are paired at 1 p.m. in Canyon.

The third place match is slated for 9:30 a.m. Saturday in Canyon and the championship event is scheduled for the same place at 1 p.m.

The first round losers play at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the Amarillo Tennis Center. The seventh place and the consolation matches will be at 9:30 p.m. Saturday at the ATC.

Bill Marsh, junior college transfer from Arkansas City, Kan., is playing number one in singles for the Buffaloes and he has a 7-5 record, as does the number two man Mike Bolton. John Phillips, playing number three, has an 8-4 season record.

The number four player, Dale Corbin of Wichita Falls, has a 10-2 season record in singles. Joe Carrick, number five, is 11-2 and sixth man Scott Pool has an 8-3 record.

Marsh and Bolton form the number one doubles team, while Corbin plays number two with Phillips. The first two teams are 10-2 for the year. Carrick and Pool have a 9-2 record.

Students Aided By TFWC

Sixteen students have been sponsored on the Lola B. Mundy Student Loan Fund since it became a division of The Opportunity Plan, Inc., in 1960. Contributions to the fund have contributed the largest amounts during the 13 years will be Mrs. John Cunningham, Dalhart, district chairman of the fund for 1972-74.

Sixteen students have been sponsored on the Lola B. Mundy Student Loan Fund since it became a division of The Opportunity Plan Inc. in 1960.

Contributions to the fund have been made annually by federated clubs in the Top of Texas District, as well as by Mrs. Mundy and other individuals. The present capital of $9,783.48 has revolved into $55,649.03 borrowed by the students for post-secondary education.

Of the amount borrowed, $47,122.03 has been repaid, and five students are now paying, including so-still in school.

The fund originated during the term of Mrs. Mundy as district president in 1953-56. It was then, however, a scholarship-designated fund for an Indian high school for graduate members favored by the scholarship for a loan under the direction of The Open University Plan because of the opportunity Plan itself and "pay back" not "help yourself" aspects of Milton Morris' plan. When it was changed to loan fund they chose to retain the name of Lella B. Mundy in honor of the outstanding Shorrock clubwoman.

Milton "Buff" Morris, executive president of OPI, maintains regular contact with the clubwomen in regard to the fund, and invariably appears at the annual convention with reports. At this year's meeting he will have picture displays of OPI students from towns throughout the district. A skit on the history of the Lola B. Mundy fund will be presented, and the 13 clubswomen Clubs throughout the Top of Texas District contribute to the Lola B. Mundy Scholarship Fund administered through The Opportunity Plan, Inc. Mrs. Mundy of Shamrock, for whom the fund was named, is a past district president and has worked to promote the fund since its inception.

The Panhandle-Plains Museum was the setting for a Guest Tea with program on oriental art held in February by Sue Hite Club. Mrs. Hazel Walsh, second from left, is current president of the group. Many of the women wore gowns of oriental design.

Sue Hite Club Spends Two Years On Study

The theme of Sue Hite is Strengthening Americanism Through Knowledge. Since the Orient is currently booming so high on the horizon of international world, and so forcefully entering the political scene in the United States, they felt the need of taking positive action to learn more about the Orient.

The club has made a two-year study of Oriental Cultures And West. The first year was devoted to establishing a background of climate and geography of Asia and its effect on the cultural patterns of the people. Mr. Robert Sawwell, head of the department of geography at West Texas State University, ably assisted in this. They gained some insight into the very complicated pattern of divergent religious by studying Buddhism, Islamism, and Hinduism.

Dr. John Kahler of the history department of West Texas State University presented a most interesting synopsis of the historical development. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reid shared with them interesting experiences while living many years in Japan. They showed slides of many interesting buildings, illustrating early and modern forms of art and styles of architecture. They gained more knowledge of art, forms of religious worship, and styles of architecture from film strips owned by the Canyon Public School library.

In the second year of the study, art was their topic. Where else can you get a better understanding of people? Specific subjects were calligraphy, woodcuts, and printing, jade, bronze, ivory, the painting of miniatures, sericulture, rug making, cloisonne, ceramics, and the theatre. This study culminated in holding the guest day program in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, using their fine oriental collections for illustrations. This meeting was

TFWC Programs

Program topics as varied and far-reaching as the roles of women in American life today have claimed the attention of clubwomen in the Top of Texas District this year.

The scope of their interests is reflected in a paragraph of the President's Report submitted by Mrs. Jim Wright of Wheeler's Thursday Review Club. She said, "The membership of the Thursday Review Club has attempted to focus on tomorrow while utilizing our experiences from yesterday."

The course of study has spanned the globe. In this journey, the problems confronting us as clubwomen and citizens of our local and world communities have been studied and plans for action initiated and consummated. Even though the journey was long, the problems myriad, we realize that a journey of a million miles starts with the first step has been taken."

Perhaps no one topic was aired more often than Texas — its land, history and culture. For example, Dalhart's 1928 Study Club

Stratford Has Two Groups

The Stratford Contemporary Club and the Prospectus Study Club are the two federated clubs in this northern Panhandle city.

Mrs. Pat Donelson heads the Stratford Contemporary Club and Mrs. Jimmy Proffier heads the Prospectus Club.

donation of money to the Lubbock State School, sponsorship of art projects on Americanism, support in purchase of street signs, support of purchase of a therapy bicycle for an elderly lady, and sponsorship of a story hour at the library during the summer.

The Prospectus Study Club sponsored projects including the support of the Boy and Girl Scouts, support of the Old Timers Celebration, support of library Park completion, support of the 4th of July celebration.

Caraway, standing committee chairman, Mrs. Fred McDaniel, department chairman, and Mrs. Mary Smith, fashions for fun chairman.

Clarendon Club

One Of Oldest

One of the oldest federated clubs in the district, the Tatfinder Club, is located in Clarendon. Headed this year by Mrs. Felo Kunz, it was organized in 1911.

The 1926 Book Club, another federated club, is also active in Clarendon under the presidency of Mrs. Mollie Ritter.

Distinguished members in the Clarendon clubs include Mrs. C.L. McMurtry, life member, Mrs. Frank Pielan, department chairman, and Mrs. Frank White, Jr., standing committee chairman.

reviewed Texas folklore, took an armchair tour via pictures and brochures of the state, surveyed biographical sketches of early leaders of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, heard a talk on barbed wire, cattle trails, and cattle brands, and studied the Dallam County Courthouse as an example of historical architecture.

The Wellington 1924 Study Club put on an original production about the history of their county and gave proceeds to the County Historical Museum Fund.

Most of Canyon's clubs toured the Panhandle Plains Museum in connection with their study of Texas heritage, and Wheeler's Wednesday Study Club toured Whitewater Land Museum at Pampa and the Square House Museum at Panhandle. Hereford's Pioneer Study Club had a luncheon program on Texas Parks with a replica of their own small workshop to learn more about the training of handicapped youth. The 1924 Study Club in the same town sponsored "Teen Citizen of the month" and an awarding program honoring outstanding teen-age citizens. Club bolstered youth has been bolstered throughout the district by contributions to youth organizations and scholarships.

The fine arts furnished another area for clubwomen to explore in their monthly programs. Spearman's Twentieth Century Club took a two-day trip to the Indian pueblo. Stratford's Prospectus Study Club traveled to Amarillo to hear Dr. Hosch of the Amarillo Symphony Orchestra speak on "The Performing Arts" and followed it up with a tour of the Amarillo Art Center. Canyon's Sue Hite Club was able to present one of their programs on oriental art and culture in the north art Libraries were the focus of many club activities for the year. Panhandle's 20th Century Club held a Friendship Guest Day Coffee honoring and benefiting their Lovett Memorial Library. Gifts of money or memorial books were given by many clubs, such as Perryton Sorosis Club which contributed five memorial books and a generous check for film strips and a film strip viewer. Higgins Litera Club helps maintain their public library.

Parks and museums received their share of gifts also. Dalhart's Contemporary Study Club earned money for the XIT Museum; Dodson's Civic Club helped maintain a vapor light in their park; and Wellington's 1924 Study Club gave proceeds of an original historical pageant to their county museum fund and also bought playground equipment for their city park.

Not forgotten were the senior citizens. Letors Art and Civic Club gave a senior citizens' party. Higgins' Doolis Club remembers

Club City's Oldest

The Woman's Book Club of Canyon has a membership of 40 and is the oldest Federated Women's Club in the city. In addition to the active membership, the club also has three honorary members and four associate members.

Organized in 1906, the Woman's Book Club was federated in 1915. It is the parent organization for the Sue Hite Club and the University Study Club, formerly known as the Junior Women's Club.

Meetings are held at 3 p.m. on the second Wednesday of each month, usually at the First Methodist Church of Canyon. Social meetings, usually held in September, December and May. During recent years, the club has also presented a musical, either at the Fine Arts Building at West Texas State University or in a private home.

The club's original course of study, "Cultural Resources of Pauline," is still continued today. Programs are usually prepared by members although guest speakers are sometimes featured.

A continuing project of the club has been the Randall County Library. The library was started in the club's meeting room in the courthouse, a room that for many years served as club room and library.

When space became available elsewhere, the club continued to support the library as its primary project.

Mrs. Charles Harter is president of the club. Other officers are Mrs. Joe Findley, vice president; Mrs. D. Mae Simmons, secretary; Mrs. J. L. T. McGhee, treasurer; and Mrs. W. L. Smith, federated club counselor.

The club's colors are white and yellow.

Becky Blewitt, president, and Mary Lisa McBride, vice-president, of Les Amies, Canyon's new juniorette club, prepare to help canvass in the recent Cancer Drive. The club was organized by Canyon Study Club.

Canyon's Newest Club Formed This Year

Les Amies, a juniorette club, is the newest of the Federated Women's Clubs, having been formed early this year under sponsorship of Canyon Study Club.

Organized with about 35 members, the club is limited to single high school students. The purpose of the club is "giving ourselves in service for others."

At the organizational meeting held Feb. 13, Becky Blewitt was elected as the group's first president. Other charter officers are Mary Lisa McBride, vice president; Jerri Lou Carruth, secretary; Christi Prichard, treasurer; Debbie Taylor, reporter; Cindy Fowles, program chairman; and Sue Green, yearbook chairman.

The club has limited its membership to 36, with membership to continue until graduation from high school. Meetings are held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, with September through May, with special executive meetings possible throughout the year.

The first project for the new club is the Cancer Drive now under way.

Representatives of the sponsoring Canyon Study Club are Mrs. Judy Becknell and Mrs. Pam Kendrick.

Mrs. Frank Grantham is president of the Civic Culture Club. Mrs. Glenn Dawkins is head of El Progreso. Mrs. Walter Coxwell heads La Cultura. Mrs. Rex Rose is president of the 20th Century Club. Mrs. David E. Holt heads the 20th Century Forum and Mrs. N. B. Ellis is head of the Varietas Club.

Celebrating its 20th Anniversary Year, Canyon's University Study Club has woven a program around a theme of "A Time to Remember."

The phrase was borrowed from Ecclesiastes 3. Scripture marked by Mrs. Barbara Wirt, president, to keynote her term in office. Helping to make the year "a time to remember" have been an active membership and a slate of officers consisting of Mrs. Marilyn Dees, vice-president; Mrs. Betty Ross Howard, secretary; Mrs. Charlotte McClure, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Betty Irilbeck, treasurer; Mrs. Bobbie Henson, parliamentarian;

Mrs. Jo Ann Davidchik, reporter-historian; and Mrs. Thelma Ruth Childs, program chairman.

In addition to their regular programs, University Study Club contributes to the life of the community and their own coffers by staging an Annual Tour of Homes. Six beautiful homes were chosen this year because of their outstanding designs and furnishings showing the varied life style and interests of those living in them. The club earned enough to support their gifts to scholarship funds, the Canyon Babe Ruth League, Camp Wigwam — a summer camp for mentally retarded boys and girls, the Girl Scouts and Canyon City Library Association.

University Study Club also cooperated with other federated clubs in Canyon in holding a "Game Night" prior to Christmas for the benefit of Canyon Division of The Opportunity Plan.

A community improvement project sponsored by University Study Club finally reached fruition last month when the new Panhandle Plains Museum Auxiliary was activated. Mrs. Wirt, president of University Study Club, was responsible with museum officials for planning the structure and by-laws of this organization and also for enlisting a charter membership to begin working in it.

The Heart Fund Drive in Canyon which netted about $800 was also sponsored by the club, with Mrs. Lois Hull and Mrs. Thelma Ruth Childs as co-chairmen.

University Study Club was organized in 1953 by the Woman's Book Club and has since organized a junior club, The Canyon Study Club.

Among the club's distinguished members are Mrs. Robert T. Lindsey, past district president; Mrs. Bobbie Henson, district awards chairman; and Mrs. Wirt, who is district secretary. Mrs. Wirt will also be doorkeeper for the 1973 TFWC Convention in Austin.
